

Ordinary Mind Zen

Verse of Universal Compassion

Hearing the sounds of the world,
Awakening is right here now!

With this I am one;
With this I am at one with all.

At one with Awakened Mind,
Calm abiding and clear seeing arise,
Eternal, joyful, pure.

In the light of morning I hold this;
In the darkness of evening I hold this.

Moment after moment the heart of compassion opens;
Moment after moment is nothing other than This.
